Dear Esteemed Members and Readers,

It is with great pride and enthusiasm that we welcome you to the maiden edition of The Global Insight - A Quarterly Newsletter by CIBN USA: a platform created to inform, inspire, and connect our vibrant community of banking professionals across the diaspora.

As we approach a significant milestone, a decade of impact and excellences this inaugural issue offers a timely reflection on the remarkable journey of the CIBN USA Branch since its official inauguration in Atlanta, Georgia, in August 2015. What began as a vision to extend the influence and support of the Chartered Institute of Bankers of Nigeria to members in the United States has evolved into a dynamic hub of knowledge-sharing, professional development, and strategic engagement.

Over the past ten years, our branch has made meaningful contributions to the global banking landscape, empowering professionals, forging strategic partnerships, expanding membership, and championing taught leadership through initiatives like the CATE Series (CIBN-USA Ask The Executive).

These achievements are a testament to the unwavering commitment of our leadership, members, and partners who have upheld the Institute's values of integrity, excellence, and continuous development.

This newsletter will serve as a quarterly channel to highlight our branch activities, share insights from industry leaders, celebrate member accomplishments, and update you on upcoming events and opportunities. It is also a space for collaboration, dialogue, and the continued strengthening of the bond between Nigerian banking professionals in the diaspora and our counterparts in Nigeria.

As we look to the future with optimism and determination, we invite you to stay engaged, share your ideas, and be an active part of this exciting new chapter.

Warm regards,

Editorial Team

CHAIRMAN'S note

Michael O. Jolayemi
Branch Chairman.

In October 2013, the Registrar Chief Executive of the Chartered Institute of Bankers of Nigeria (CIBN), Dr. Uju Ogubunka, FCIB, requested that CIBN members in the United States of America explore the possibility of starting a branch in the United States. The Chartered Institute of Bankers, USA Branch, was registered in the State of California on August 26, 2014, as a non-profit public benefit corporation (501(c)(3).

The Branch was inaugurated on Saturday, August 1, 2015, in Atlanta, Georgia, by Otunba (Mrs.) 'Debola Osibogun, FCIB, then President and Chairman of Council, supported by Dr. (Sir) Seye Awojobi, PhD, FCIB, Registrar and Chief Executive of the Institute. Among the distinguished guests in Atlanta were Ambassador Geoffrey Teneilabe, Consul-General, Nigeria Consulate, Atlanta, Georgia, and Dr. Johnson Ayodele Akingbade, FCIB, who served as the keynote speaker. The Branch's first Executive Committee was established under the leadership of its first Chairman, Mr. Emmanuel Amosu, FCIB. The branch has come a long way since then. The United States is unique in its size and diversity, with 50 states spread far apart, three Nigerian consulates, and one embassy in Washington, D.C. The CIBN members live vast distances from each other, across multiple time zones. It takes about six hours to fly from California to Boston. This geographical spread makes coordination extremely challenging.

Another significant challenge is that many CIBN members in the USA are no longer practicing bankers, having transitioned into new careers to sustain their lives in the U.S. Continued allegiance to the CIBN and commitment to the cause of the Institute are therefore based largely on individual passion and interest. In the face of these challenges, the few committed members who run the branch have had to do so, often with personal resources.

I want to sincerely thank the past and current leaders, as well as all members of the branch, for their personal sacrifices over the past 10 years. I also extend deep appreciation to our distinguished patrons for their unwavering support of the branch's activities. Our patrons have consistently shown full commitment whenever they were needed.

We are working hard to make the USA Branch the branch to beat within the Institute. Today marks a major milestone in our journey to enhance the global visibility and impact of the CIBN. Today, the maiden edition of the CIBN USA Quarterly Newsletter, Global Insight, is being launched by the President and Chairman of Council. Our website/web portal is gradually being developed, along with the Branch's YouTube channel.

My sincere appreciation to the CIBN USA Communication Committee, you are a great team.

The primary objectives of these initiatives are to lead advocacy, foster national discourse, and promote collaborations on the future of banking and finance in Nigeria, Africa, and globally.

We appeal to friends of the Institute and supporters of the USA Branch to continue supporting our cause. We deeply appreciate the President and Chairman of Council, Professor Pius Deji Olanrewaju, PhD, FCIB, the past presidents, current office holder, and the Governing Council for their support. We also thank the Global Registrar and the officers and staff of the National Secretariat for their ongoing assistance.

Above all, we are grateful to God for the past 10 years, and we firmly believe the best is yet to come.
Thank you.

A Decade of

IMPACT & GROWTH

While the CIBN USA Branch has made significant strides over the last ten years, we acknowledge the challenges that come with maintaining and growing an international professional body. These challenges present opportunities for improvement and innovation as we strive to strengthen our impact.

Challenges

- 1. Membership Coordination
Coordinating members across the United States has been a persistent challenge due to the vast geographical spread, varying time zones, and competing personal and professional commitments. Ensuring maximum participation in branch activities and maintaining close-knit engagement with all members remains an ongoing effort.
- 2. Image and Reputation Management
The perception of Nigeria on the global stage, influenced by the actions of a few bad actors, has unfortunately cast a shadow on many professionals and institutions affiliated with the country. Nigerian professionals, including CIBN members, must work harder to establish credibility and demonstrate professional excellence.

- 3. Funding Constraints
International branches face financial Challenges that sometimes hinder the execution of large-scale projects and initiatives.
- 4. Volunteer-Driven Membership Engagement
CIBN USA, like other international branches, operates on a volunteer basis, relying on the dedication and commitment of its members. However, with a limited number of actively engaged volunteers, it can be challenging to drive high-impact projects and sustain momentum in executing branch initiatives.

The Way Forward: Strategies for a Sustainable Future

To ensure the continued growth and impact of CIBN USA, the Branch will adopt the following strategies:

1. Strengthening Communication through Newsletters

- The CIBN USA Newsletter will serve as a key instrument for leadership engagement, professional insights, and member updates.
- The intellectual content of the newsletter will be designed to ignite meaningful conversations, keeping members informed and engaged.
- Contributions from industry experts, thought leaders, and members will be encouraged to enhance the newsletter's relevance and impact.

2. Enhancing Relationships & Sustaining Connections

- Contacts made through annual conferences, networking events, and professional activities will be nurtured through consistent follow-ups.
- A structured engagement strategy will be developed to ensure that CIBN USA maintains connections with industry professionals, potential partners, and stakeholders.

- A mentorship and peer-networking initiative will be introduced to foster professional growth and knowledge exchange among members.

3. Expanding Collaborations for Greater Impact

- CIBN USA will actively seek partnerships with reputable institutions across various sectors that align with the Institute's mission.
- Collaborations will be pursued with organizations both in the United States and Nigeria to foster cross-border professional development.
- Establishing relationships with diaspora organizations, academic institutions, and corporate entities will help to expand opportunities for members while also contributing to Nigeria's financial sector.

4. Promoting Leadership & Board Representation

- To ensure international branches have a voice in the Institute's strategic direction, CIBN USA advocates for rotational board representation at the Governing Council level.
- This representation will allow international branches to articulate their unique needs,

The Way Forward: Strategies for a Sustainable Future

ensuring that the Institute's leadership considers the perspectives of its global members.

- Representatives will work to strengthen policy advocacy and promote initiatives that enhance the growth of international branches.

5. Adopting Strategic Thinking for Future Growth

- CIBN USA will prioritize forward-thinking strategies that strengthen its influence and relevance within the global financial landscape.

- The branch will proactively explore new avenues for professional development, thought leadership, and industry innovation.
- By leveraging technology, research, and industry best practices, CIBN USA aims to elevate its status as a leading financial institute while positively impacting Nigeria's economic and financial ecosystem.
